

Wisconsin made Suspense-Thriller BLAME set for International Release in September

Burlington, WI, Release: August 6th, 2021. For Immediate Release

Producing team Richard Blake and BJ Rayniak grew up in Kenosha County making short films together dating back to the early 90's. Fast forward to 2016, the duo created their first feature film The Rocket, a family sports drama available now on Amazon Prime. Their latest film BLAME, is a snowy suspense-thriller set to release internationally through Amazon on September 21st, 2021.

Filmed in Racine & Kenosha counties during the Polar Vortex of 2019, where temperatures dropped to minus 40 degrees some nights, this small cast and crew took advantage of the extreme conditions knowing it would add an irreplaceable authenticity to the film's overall look.

Written by Blake, who also plays a Detective in the film and directed by Rayniak, this cautionary tale focuses on five young friends seeking refuge in a lone building after their vehicle crashes in a vicious snowstorm. The group splits up to find help but when they reunite, one of them is found dead.

With a mix of talent from all over the country, the film stars Austin Brook, Roberto Jay, Laynie Mitchell, Lauren Elyse Buckley, and Rachel Lynn David as the core group of friends. Chicago based Cinematographer, Stephen Wester was brought on to shoot the film, while North Carolina native, Steven J Kukla composed the musical score. Academy Award winning Special Effects artist, Dieter Sturm even came onboard to provide more practical snow effects on set.

Bryan Erwin, Host of the Hollywood Anonymous podcast screened the film in advance and said:

"I thoroughly enjoyed the unique style of storytelling that allowed this thriller to keep you guessing until the very end."

BLAME is currently making rounds through various film festivals nationwide and has already received 2 wins for Best Action Film and Best Original Score at the Green Bay MLC Awards.

Prior to the film's digital release, a Red-Carpet Premiere event with the cast and crew will be held on August 20th, 2021 at the Emagine Theaters in Lake Geneva, WI. Tickets are available HERE along with limited complimentary Press passes.
